- If you arrive prior to July 14 or depart later than July 21 you must make your own arrangements and cover all costs

Eligibility:

1. Be a Canadian citizen. Citizenship must be authorized by a valid Canadian passport.
2. Be at least 17 and less than 28 years of age as of January 1st in the year of the event.
3. Be an amateur as intended by the International Olympic Committee and the appropriate International Sports Federation.
4. Be a student who is registered for and pursuing a full-time course of study at a post-secondary institution.
 - Full-time status must be authorized by a document from the registrar of the institution.
 - Post-secondary institutions include community colleges, professional schools, technical schools, C.E.G.E.P., and universities, in Canada or outside of Canada.
 - or Be a former student who has graduated from a post-secondary institution as a student in good standing, in the year preceding the event.
 - Graduation must be authorized by a document from the registrar of the institution.

Selection Criteria:

The top ranked applicant in each weight class will be selected to the team. The rankings posted after the 2008 Senior Nationals will be used for the selection process. Athletes will only be considered for the weight class they entered at the 2008 Senior Nationals. If weight classes are vacant after this process the top ranked athlete without a spot on the team will be contacted and asked if they wish to move to a different weight class. This process will be followed until all weight classes are filled or there are no more applicants. Athletes will only be able to move up or down one weight class.

Timeline:
